Summary of the Activity:

July 15th marks a significant day on the global calendar as the United Nations officially recognizes it as World Youth Skills Day. On account of World Youth Skills Day, Cultural committee organized “Skill Showcasing Event”, in which students showcased their various cultural skills. This special occasion provides an invaluable opportunity to shed light on the importance of skill development amongst young people and the role it plays in shaping a transformative future. The students of the college showed their talents like folk dance, Graphic painting, singing, etc.

The audience was enthralled and appreciated the participants.
