Summary of the Activity:

Marathi Rajbhasha Diwas was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 27th February to honor the rich heritage of the Marathi language and literature. The event was organized in order to promote the significance of Marathi as a language of culture, history, and literature. Marathi Rajbhasha Diwas was celebrated to rejoice the birth anniversary of Dyanpeeth award winner late poet V V Shirwadkar who is also known as Kusumagraj. Marathi being the official language of the State of Maharashtra, the main focus of this celebration was to promote the Maharashtrian culture amongst the students of H. K. College of Pharmacy. The event started with the speech of Mr. Prathmesh Kothawade and Ms. Sayli Sawant-student of SY. B.Pharm enlightening on Marathi language and its literature, followed by fun game for students and faculties in which all have to guess the meaning of the given Marathi phrases. The assembly concluded with speech by our Professor Dr. M. N. Saraf on the significance of Marathi Divas followed by vote of Thanks by our faculty, Mr. Prathmesh Kothawade.
