- To recognize their achievements and memories to the college
- To foster a sense of belonging and celebrate the journey of students

Program Outcome (PO): PO1, PO6, PO8, PO9/ PSO1

Participants Details:

Total Number of College Students: 105

Total Number of Faculty Members: 20

Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

The farewell party for the final-year students was held on Thursday 15th May 2025, in the college auditorium. The farewell event was graced by the presence of Principal Dr. Tushar Lokhande, faculty members, and students from various batches. The program was initiated by inspiring words of beloved Principal. There were games to relish and songs to enjoy the moment. The program was hosted by the third-year B. Pharm students to honour their seniors. The celebration began with a welcome speech followed by a cultural program that included dance performances, a musical segment, and a video montage showcasing memorable moments of the batch. The program ended with vote of thanks by the general secretary of third year B. Pharm.

Highlights of the event included:

Speeches: Heartfelt speeches were delivered by students and faculty members, recalling the academic journey and shared experiences.

Token of Love: Mementos were presented to the outgoing students as a token of appreciation and remembrance.

Open Mic: Students shared memories, gave shout-outs to friends and professors, and expressed their gratitude.

The event concluded with group photographs, followed by refreshments.
