Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

The Farewell for the Final year Students was joyfully celebrated on 11th May 2026 at H.K. College of Pharmacy. The event was organized with great enthusiasm and emotion to bid goodbye to the outgoing batch and celebrate their achievements and memories. The event served as an opportunity for juniors and faculty members to express gratitude, share experience and wishes graduating students success in their future. The program began on a cheerful note with a lively opening by students' general secretary Mr.Amaan Tambu and Ms. Sanobar Sayed, who set an energetic and welcoming atmosphere for the day. Their engaging presence immediately captured everyone's attention and created excitement among the students.

The game wrong answers only tested creativity and coordination, while "guess the legend " made the audience thoroughly engaged and amused. Adding to the charm of the event, the First-Year students presented a vibrant dance performance, reflecting their confidence and stage presence, with their spirited performance.

One of the most awaited segments was the Title Distribution Ceremony, where special titles were given to students based on their personality, talents, and achievements. The segment was filled with excitement, applause, and memorable moments by giving them memorable gifts. The event also included felicitations, where contributors and participants were appreciated, encouraging a culture of recognition and motivation.

The program concluded with a heartfelt conclusion by cultural secretary, who expressed gratitude to the organizers, performers, and participants, and shared warm wishes for the final year for their academic journey ahead. Overall, the Farewell was a joyful, memorable, and successful event, filled with performances, laughter, bonding, and positive energy. It beautifully strengthened the bond between seniors and juniors and marked a wonderful memorable moment at H.K. College of Pharmacy.
