- The objective of the visit was to provide students with practical exposure to nature and to help them learn about butterflies, their life cycle, habitat, and ecological importance.
- The visit also aimed to increase students' awareness about biodiversity and the need for conservation of natural resources.

Participants Details:

Total no. of Students: Final year Div A, B

Total no of Faculty: 04

Program Outcome: PO1, PO9, PO10, PO11.

Summary of the activity:

On 24 December 2025, students participated in an educational field trip to the Butterfly Garden in Silvassa. This visit provided students with the chance to observe numerous butterfly species within a natural and carefully maintained garden. The setting featured a variety of flowering and host plants, which served to attract butterflies and enhance the learning experience.

Students explored the different stages of the butterfly life cycle, including the egg, larva (caterpillar), pupa (chrysalis), and adult butterfly. The tranquil and educational atmosphere of the garden allowed students to enjoy their surroundings while gaining valuable insights into nature and the importance of environmental conservation.
