Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

The Founder's Day celebration commenced at 3:00 pm with a welcome speech by Ms. Sanobar Sayed (Cultural Secretary, H.K. College of Pharmacy) and Mr. Amaan Tambu (General Secretary, H.K. College of Pharmacy), setting a respectful tone for the event.

The ceremony was inaugurated with the lighting of the lamp by dignitaries, Dr. Azeem Khan, Dr. Tushar Lokhande, Dr. Varsha Maru, Mrs. Vasundhara Jakka. A lit lamp symbolizes knowledge and enlightenment.

Dr. Ramya Vikram (Assistant Professor, H.K. College of Pharmacy) gave a speech on the late Prof. Javed Khan, his philanthropy, his vision and his commitment towards educating all sections of society. Prof. Javed Khan had a vision of transforming education into a sanctuary of learning and wisdom which he brought into life by creating the Maharashtra Educational Society and the Oriental Education Society which has several colleges under their banner.

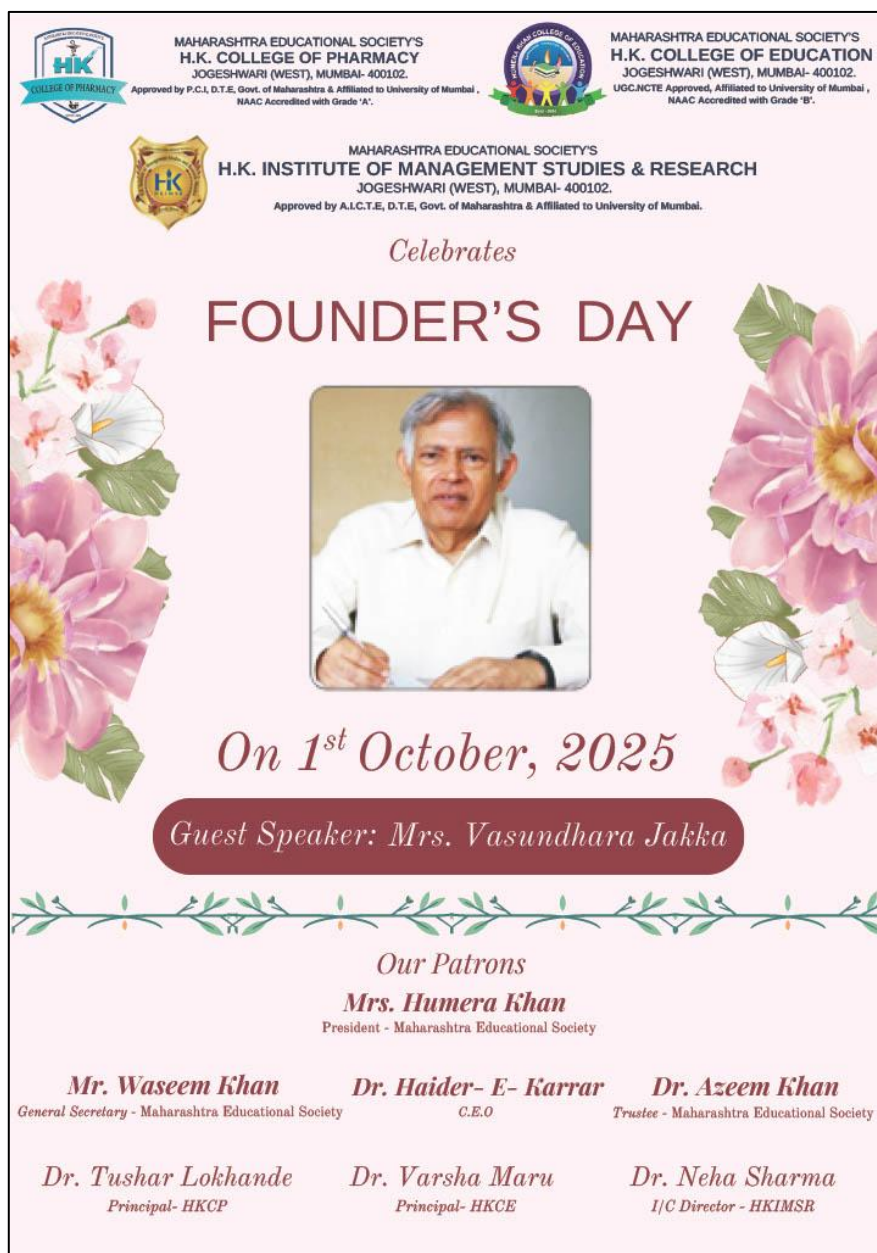

Dr. Tushar Lokhande and Dr. Varsha Maru shared valuable perspectives on the founder's expectations and the college's growth. Dr. Azeem Khan delivered an inspiring and engaging speech emphasizing the importance of education, research, and service in pharmacy.

Dr. Azeem Khan's speech was followed by a motivational speech by Mrs. Vasundhara Jakka, who encouraged students to uphold the founder's ideals in their academic and professional journey.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Archana Upadhy (Associate Professor, H. K. College of Pharmacy), acknowledging everyone's contribution to making the event successful.

The day concluded with remembering the contributions of the Father of our Great Nation "Mahatma Gandhi" and with the singing of the National Anthem.
