Summary of the Lecture/Activity: Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

The Freshers' Party for the First-Year students and Direct Second Year (DSY) freshers was joyfully celebrated on 3rd January 2026 at H.K. College of Pharmacy. The event was organized to warmly welcome the new students and help them feel comfortable, confident, and connected with their seniors and the institution.

The program began on a cheerful note with a lively opening by our lovely hosts Maher and Hamza, who set an energetic and welcoming atmosphere for the day. Their engaging presence immediately captured everyone's attention and created excitement among the freshers.

This was followed by a graceful dance performance by the second-year students, which filled the venue with enthusiasm and showcased their talent and unity. The celebration continued with a series of fun-filled games that brought laughter and active participation from the students.

The game "Draw on My Back" tested creativity and coordination, while "Identify the Object" added curiosity and excitement. "Bollypick" delighted Bollywood lovers with its entertaining twists, and "Imposter" kept everyone guessing, making the audience thoroughly engaged and amused.

Adding to the charm of the event, the third-year students presented a vibrant dance performance, reflecting their confidence and stage presence, and motivating the juniors with their spirited performance.

One of the most awaited segments of the day was the Mr. and Ms. Fresher contest, where students confidently showcased their personality, talent, and communication skills. The segment was filled with excitement, applause, and memorable moments.

The event also included felicitations, where contributors and participants were appreciated, encouraging a culture of recognition and motivation.

The program concluded with a heartfelt conclusion by the cultural secretary, who expressed gratitude to the organizers, performers, and participants, and shared warm wishes for the freshers' academic journey ahead.

Overall, the Freshers' Party was a joyful, memorable, and successful event, filled with performances, laughter, bonding, and positive energy. It beautifully strengthened the bond between seniors and juniors and marked a wonderful beginning for the freshers at HK College of Pharmacy.
