Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

The Founder's Day commemoration commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by Dr. Azeem J. Khan, Trustee of Maharashtra Educational Society, accompanied by Dr. Devang Shah and Dr. Tushar Lokhande Principal, H. K. College of Pharmacy. Principal Dr. Tushar Lokhande extended warm greetings to Dr. Azeem J. Khan, followed by the felicitation of Dr. Devang Shah from with floral bouquets.

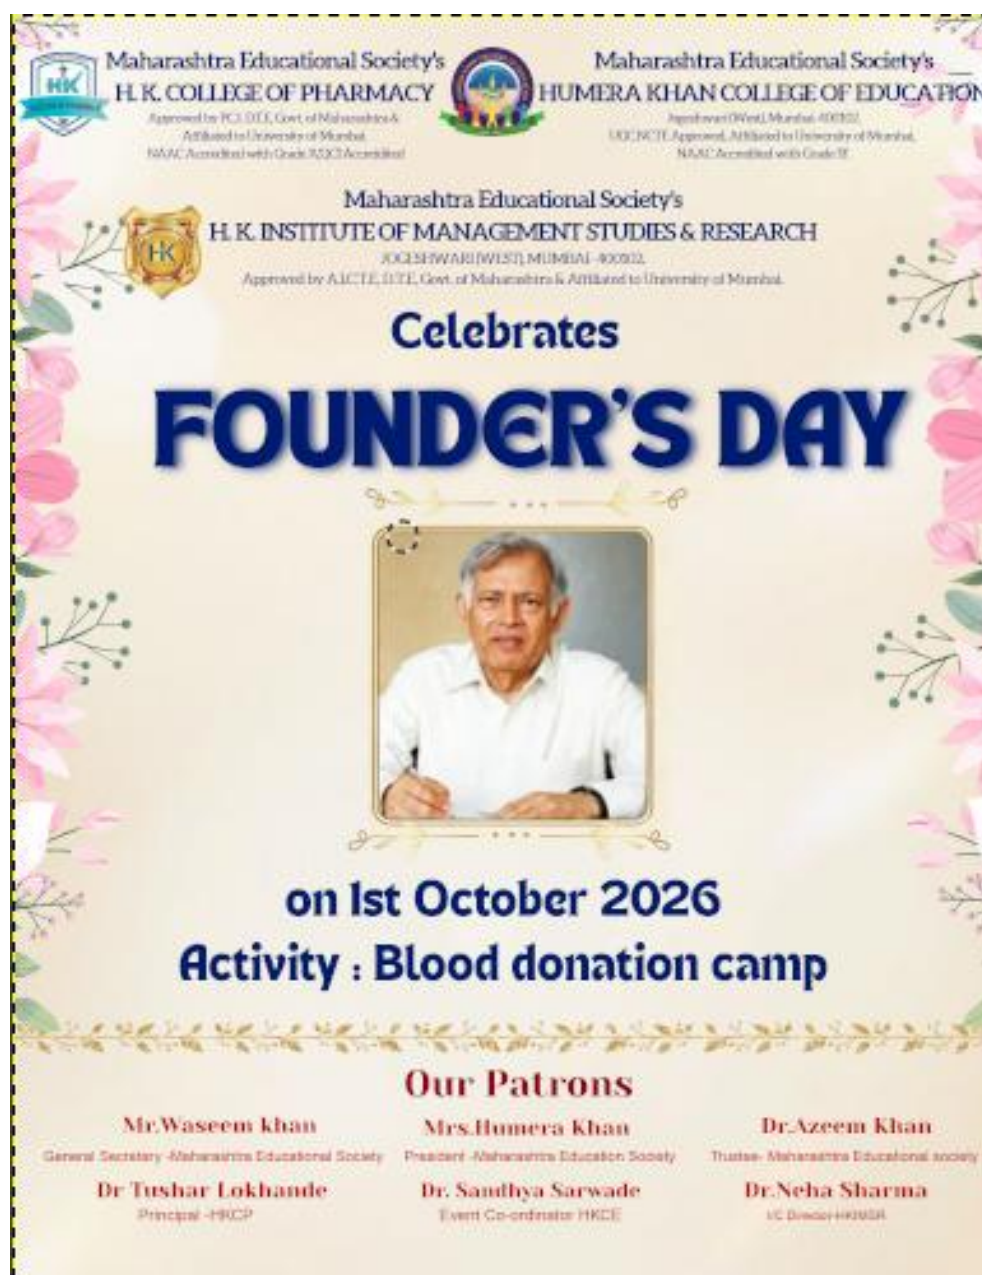

Dr. Azeem J. Khan addressed the gathering, inspiring the audience with the management's vision for academic excellence and social upliftment. Dr. Tushar Lokhande then delivered a speech commemorating the enduring legacy of Late Prof. Javed Khan, reflecting on his role as a visionary educationist and social reformer who established higher education institutions as sanctuaries of learning. This was followed by an enlightening address by Dr. Devang Shah highlighting the vital significance and humanitarian value of voluntary blood donation. He emphasized that blood is an irreplaceable life-saving resource that cannot be artificially manufactured, emphasizing the profound impact a single donor can make in critical emergency care, trauma management, and chronic therapies. His thought-provoking words dispelled common misconceptions, encouraged first-time donors, and inspired both students and faculty members to actively participate in this noble community mission.

As a living tribute to his philanthropic life, H. K. College of Pharmacy organized a voluntary Blood

Donation Camp inaugurated with a ribbon-cutting ceremony by Dr. Azeem J. Khan. Donors underwent structured registration and basic vitals screening (blood pressure and hemoglobin evaluation) under qualified medical supervision before donating. The camp witnessed enthusiastic participation, collecting blood from 46 voluntary donors.

The event concluded with appreciation for all donors, student volunteers, and committee members, with Dr. Tushar Lokhande expressing heartfelt gratitude to all participants for making the camp a meaningful celebration of Founder's Day.
