WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL

In compliance with University of Mumbai directives, "The Women Development Cell", of Humera Khan College of Pharmacy was established in the year 2011. The Women's Development Cell (WDC) of college is a statutory body for the prevention of and action against sexual harassment of women. The Cell has both the faculty and students at the college and works with an aim to create a gender awareness within the campus. College has successfully organized events like Human Rights & Gender Sensitization, Women Empowerment, Free Wellness, Gender Equality and Grooming Programme, Women's & laws-Latest Amendments for the upliftment of women', and spread the importance of gender equality & gender sensitivity among the college students. The Cell takes on to involve both male and female students in its information dissemination and sensitization activities. In every academic year a WDC meeting was conducted about the working of WDC. College has also formed Internal complaint committee to prohibit, prevent and redress the sexual harassment. Our Institution therefore always has a holistic approach in addressing and handling such issues, till now no case of sexual harassment has found.
