Summary of the activity:

The Extension and Outreach Committee and the Green Club of H. K. College of Pharmacy successfully organized a vibrant celebration of World Parrot Day on 31st May 2025. The event was designed to raise awareness about the ecological significance of parrots and promote conservation efforts, all while engaging participants in an entertaining and educational manner.

The celebration featured a variety of interactive activities, including a quiz competition that tested participants' knowledge about different parrot species, their habitats, and conservation challenges. A thought-provoking skit 'UDDAN', was performed, highlighting the threats faced by parrots. Additionally, an insightful presentation was delivered, offering scientific facts and fascinating details about the intelligence, types, habitat and social behaviour of the parrot.

To add a cultural touch, the event concluded with a singing session. The celebration was well-received by students and faculty alike, fostering a deeper appreciation for these vibrant creatures.

Through this initiative, H. K. College of Pharmacy reinforced its commitment to environmental awareness and wildlife conservation, inspiring students to contribute towards protecting biodiversity.
