Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

To adequately prepare B. Pharmacy students for careers in the health care sector, MITCON, Consultancy & Engineering Services Limited—an ISO 9001:2015 certified organization recognized by NSDC (National Skill Development Corporation), LSSSDC (Life Sciences Sector Skill Development Council), and DSIR (Department of Scientific & Industrial Research)—entered into a Memorandum of Understanding with H. K. College of Pharmacy, supported by the Department of Science and Technology.

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) facilitated the execution of the fourth and fifth modules of the Value-Added Course titled “Final Counselling” for Second, Third, and Final Year B. Pharm students on Apr 30, 2025. The program aimed to provide individualized career help and counselling that included personalized guidance on industry trends, career pathways, and one-on-one counselling. Students were advised on how to create a professional CV (curriculum vitae) that emphasizes accomplishments and qualities. Students were also guided on different job search strategies such as using internet job portals, networking, and effective job search methods. All crucial for success for growth in the pharmaceutical industry. Participants expressed that the program significantly contributed to their career development after earning their B. Pharmacy degree.
