Key Highlights of the Activity/Lecture:

The session started with the introduction to cyber security by Mrs. Geeta Taur who also welcomed the speakers.

The speakers made the audience aware of the various ways in which their data can be hacked and compromised. They alerted students about third party apps which demand a lot of permissions which pose a threat to personal confidential information.

The students were thoroughly informed about various cyber frauds via factual examples.

A video on dos and don'ts when using apps and mobile devices to prevent fraud was played by speakers.

The Q &A sessions were interactive with various questions from faculty and students.

The speakers made students aware of the cybercrime helpline numbers -1930 and Meri Trustline number- 6363176363.
