Summary of the Lecture/Activity:

The Investiture Ceremony and Teacher's Day Celebration were successfully conducted on 5th September 2026 in the H.K. College of Pharmacy Auditorium. The program brought together 132 students and 28 faculty members for an event focused on student leadership, institutional responsibility, and the appreciation of educators.

The Investiture Ceremony served as the formal platform for assigning and acknowledging student leadership positions. A total of 19 student leadership posts were conferred for the academic year. These covered key functional areas including General Secretary, Cultural Secretary, Scientific Head, Alumni Head, Extension and Outreach Head, Magazine Editorial, Branding, Magazine Designing, Library, Placement, and Aavishkar coordination. Furthermore, students were identified and assigned responsibilities associated with the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) Committee.

Conducted alongside the Investiture Ceremony, the Teacher's Day Celebration created a meaningful occasion for students to express their gratitude towards their teachers. The combined program successfully highlighted the vital synergy between student participation, active leadership, and faculty guidance in enriching the overall development of the college community.
